

Learning in Europe: Observatory on
National and International evolution

UNDERSTANDING CHANGE, ADAPTING TO CHANGE, SHAPING THE FUTURE: TRENDS AND POLICY TENSIONS IN EUROPEAN EDUCATION AND TRAINING

LEONIE CONFERENCE

12 April 2005

Vertretung des Freistaates Bayern bei der Europäischen Union in 77 rue Wiertz, Brussels

9.30 - 10.00	Welcome and registration
10.00 - 11.30	PLENARY SESSION, Chaired by Claudio Dondi
	10.00 Welcome on the behalf of Bavarian Representation 10.15 Opening Mr. A.J. Hingel, Head of Unit Unit A4 "Socrates: Coordination and Horizontal Actions" DG "Education and culture " European Commission 10.35 Importance of Innovation in Education and Training Brian Holmes, Principal Administrator, European Commission, DG Education and Culture 11:05 Introduction to the LEONIE project and methodologies used Tapio Koskinen, Helsinki University of Technology
11.30 - 12.00	Coffee Break
12.00 - 14.00	SESSION 2, Chaired by Tapio Koskinen
	12.00 Tensions that push future learning towards different directions Claudio Delrio, Scierter 12.20 Learning Café (moderated interactive session) 12.40 Indictors to measure if the trends identified by the Leonie project will change in the following ten years Walter Kügemann, FIM New Learning 13.00 Learning Café (moderated interactive session) 13.20 Enhancing the usability of observatories and continuation of LEONIE Claudio Dondi, Scierter 13.40 Learning Café (moderated interactive session)
14.00 - 15.00	Lunch
15.00 - 16.30	SESSION 3, Chaired by Walter Kügeman
	15.00 Summary of results from Session 2 Tapio Koskinen and moderators 15.40 Wrapping-up: Results, recommendations and planning ahead Walter Kügeman 16.10 Concluding remarks Mr Jean-Yves Stefani, Administrator Unit A4 "Socrates: Coordination and Horizontal Actions" DG 'Education and Culture' European Commission
16.30	End of the programme